STAT

After your visit with General Walters, he referred your resume to me with the indication that you were interested in employment with us.

Your papers were reviewed by those offices most interested in applicants with your background and experience. Unfortunately, we were unable to locate a suitable vacancy for you. This is certainly no reflection on your excellent qualifications. Simply stated, reductions in our personnel strength have greatly limited the number of new employees we bring on board. There are hundreds of applicants for our few available positions and, regrettably, many with excellent credentials are being turned away each day.

We appreciate your interest in being associated with us and regret that our search did not meet with favorable results.

Sincerely,

(Signed) F. W. M. Janney
